

Dear Member,

We are writing to you concerning the talk to be given by Gavin Edgerley-Harris, Director of the Gurkha Museum on:

Monday 17th July 2017 11am The Gurkha Museum, Peninsula Barracks Romsey Road, Winchester SO23 8TS

It is now more than 200 years since Gurkhas first served the British Crown by enlisting as soldiers and memorials have been a very emotive way of recording Gurkha loyalty and sacrifice on the battlefields of the world. This talk will tell the story of such Gurkha service and the memorials erected in their honour.

This talk is entitled 'A memorial to Gurkha Soldiers'

We propose to follow the talk with a Curry Lunch.

Coffee from 10.45am. Talk starts at 11am.

£ 25.00 per person for Talk /Lunch.

£ 5.00 per person for Talk.

Please pre-book for the Talk as we may need to contact you about any unforeseen changes to the evening. No tickets will be issued.
