

The Gurkha Welfare Trust, Scottish Branch Charity Curry Lunch – Maj Sudan Dewan

This year's Gurkha Welfare Trust's Scottish Branch Charity Curry Lunch was held at 3rd Rifles Officers' Mess, Dreghorn Barracks, Edinburgh on Sunday 29th October. It was a really enjoyable event with an excellent turn out of more than 120 people which concluded with curry lunch, raffles, auction and a performance by the Musselburgh and Penicuik Boys' Brigade Pipe Band. Sincere thanks goes to the event organizers, volunteers and all of those who attended and generously donated to raise a substantial amount for the important work of the GWT.

Lt Col (Retd) Andrew Ward Rifles (Chairman of the GWT's Scottish Branch) pauses for a group photo opportunity with Gurkha (Retd) Officers and their ladies.

A rare bottle of Scotch whisky goes up for auction!

The Musselburgh and Penicuik Boys' Brigade Pipe Band performing at the event.

